Governor's Award of Excellence for Workplace Safety and Health Presented Century Group, Inc. of Lebanon Receives Award

NASHVILLE – Labor & Workforce Development Deputy Commissioner Bob Henningsen recently announced Century Group, Inc., in Lebanon was selected to receive the Governor's Award of Excellence for Workplace Safety and Health. Henningsen presented the award at the 26th annual Tennessee Safety and Health Congress and Exposition held at the Opryland Convention Center in Nashville.

"I'm pleased to state that this is the third consecutive year that Century Group has won the Governor's Award, making it the only company to win the award three years in a row," said Henningsen. "Maintaining such a level of safety shows Century Group is strongly committed to maintaining a safe and healthy workplace. The company's last recordable injury was in March 1998, which is remarkable."

The Governor's Award of Excellence for Workplace Safety and Health is given to Tennessee employers who meet the required number of hours during a calendar year without workplace injuries serious enough to cause an employee to miss a day of work or restrict his normal job activities. The number of hours required is based on the size of the company.

The company manufactures concrete products, employing 15.
